Cops for Kids with Cancer is a 501c3 non-profit charity focused on raising funds to provide assistance to families of children fighting cancer to improve their quality of life.

Mission Statement:

Cops for Kids with Cancer is a 501c3 non-profit charity focused on raising funds to provide assistance to families of children fighting cancer to improve their quality of life.

Who We Are

Established in 2002, Cops for Kids with Cancer has been committed to improving the quality of life of children fighting cancer. In 2008, we started donating funds directly to families in addition to hospitals. When a child is stricken with cancer, the whole family dynamic is changed. Cops for Kids with Cancer helps to lighten the heavy load carried by families who are fighting a very mean and difficult disease.

Our all volunteer board is comprised of active and retired local, sheriff and state police officers as well as business people who are friends of law enforcement. Our meeting space is donated, no board member receives a salary, and we spend minimal amounts on supplies and fundraising costs. All other funds raised by Cops for Kids with Cancer go directly to kids with cancer and their families.

Our Future

The future of Cops for Kids with Cancer relies on the generous support of our sponsors. In order to minimize overhead, we rely on grass-roots efforts to raise funds.

Our hope is that we can continue with our mission to improve the quality of life of children fighting cancer through the generous support of our sponsors. Nothing on this planet feels better than doing something that makes a positive impact on people with troubles. We are a small charity compared to some, but our determination to make life a little easier for recipients is unrivaled. We hope to never have to turn away a child in need due to a lack of funds.
